APRIL-TIME.

BY KNITH LUSK.

Everything's a-dripping from the recent shower,
All the buds and leaflets and ev'ry new blown flower
Holds its diamond dewdrop all a-blaze and twinkle,
And the surface of the brooklet's still a-wrinkle
Where the shining raindrops pattered fast in merry rhyme;
In this happy, changeable, blithe and budding April-time.
The darkening rain clouds hurry overhead along,
Followed by a flood of sunshine, and a burst of song
From the pasture, vales, hillsides and the woodland green;
Where the tiny feathered songsters hide, the leaves between,
Warbling 'till their throats are trembling with each ringing note,
'Till each earl free and joyous through the air doth float.
Ev'ry leaflet bears a pendant, rich as any seen,
Though 'tis but a raindrop hanging from this brooch of green;
See it changing! crystal, golden, then a crimson hue,
And this splendor all's wrought by the sun's rays peeping through
The branches of the trees bedecked with leaf and flower,
And laden with the raindrops from the April shower.

Like a springtime secret sweetly whispered through the trees,
Comes the soft and dewey laden, honey-centred breeze,
And behold! the freshening April shower a-new;
Not this time from out the arching dome of white and blue,
But from ev'ry branch and twig that holds a fragrant bloom,
Where the bees fly 'mongst the blossoms with their drowsy tune.
Dandelions dot the hillsides 'mongst the springing grass,
And the cups of gold are bursting ev'rywhere we pass.
Seeming to reflect the sunbeams from the changing sky;
Ah! the pretty blossoms nodding as the winds pass by,
With its birds and blossoms, and the raindrops rhyme,
Whut is fairer, than this budding, changeable April-time?
Myrtle Point, Oregon, April 3, 1905.

Sick Headache

When your head aches, there is a storm in the nervous system, centering in the brain.

This irritation produces pain in the head, and the turbulent nerve current sent to the stomach causes nausea, vomiting.

This is sick headache, and is dangerous, as frequent and prolonged attacks weaken the brain, resulting in loss of memory, inflammation, epilepsy, fits, dizziness, etc.

Allay this stormy, irritated, aching condition by taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills.

They stop the pain by soothing, strengthening and relieving the tension upon the nerves—not by paralyzing them, as do most headache remedies.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills do not contain opium, morphine, chloral, cocaine or similar drugs.

"Sick headache is hereditary in my family. My father suffered a great deal, and for many years I have had spells that were so severe that I was unable to attend to my business affairs for a day or so at a time. During a very severe attack of headache, I took Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills and they relieved me almost immediately. Since then I take them when I feel the spell coming on and it stops it at once."

JOHN J. McERLAIN.

Pres. S. B. Eng. Co., South Bend, Ind.
Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

THE HARGIS TRIAL.

The trial of the Hargises and Ed Callahan is in progress in the Fayette Circuit Court at Lexington. The Commonwealth having elected to try Judge James Hargis first, his trial began Monday. Two witnesses—Charley Robbins and Riley Coldiron—testified that at least three men were in the second story of the Court House when Cockrell was shot, two of whom they recognized as Curt Jett and Bill Britton, but they failed to identify the third man. Curt Jett had a pistol, but the other two were armed with guns. A witness named Green was called, but did not answer. Dr. Barclay, who was with Cockrell at the hospital, testified as to the nature of wounds, and other witnesses were examined, but the only evidence elicited that was germane to the case Monday, was the identity of the two and the avowal that three were in the Court House.

Tuesday several Commonwealth witnesses testified. Anse White stated that Judge Hargis gave him a pistol and told him to kill Attorney Vaughn, Jim Cockrill, McKinley Cockrill, Dr. Cox and one other man, whom witness thought was J. B. Marcum. Hardin Childers said Judge Hargis told him he was glad Cockrill was killed, and he was a friend of the man who killed him.

LACONIC LINKS.

The treasury department reports that there are $2,588,992, 983 in circulation in the United States. Got your share?

About the only thing strange or noteworthy about the elections in Wisconsin was that LaFollette was not elected to anything.

Wisconsin is still unable to determine whether she has two Senators and one Governor or two Governors and one Senator.

Senator Elkins' committee has arranged to secure a vast deal of information on how not to frame a bill regulating railroad rates.

It is not thought that the cannibals would hesitate to eat a missionary merely because he was "stained" a little with Standard oil.

The grand jury investigation in Chicago has not reduced the price of meat, but it has increased business of the Europe-bound steamers.

The man who wanted to kill Gov. Hoch, of Kansas, said he was inspired by the "god of fire." Any body can get it around here for a dollar a quart.

Half the Russian soldiers are unable to read and write, the Czar holding that these accomplishments are not necessary to be able to "run" and fight.

Another minister doubts the honesty of Rockefeller's money making. He needn't bother, Kansas and Texas will settle that point if they can.

An Iowa man, appointed attorney general, of Porto Rico, has been asked to come home. This will call another "executive session" of the Iowa Senators.

Seven new national banks have been established in Ohio since March 1. Capital in that state is less cowardly since Mrs. Chadwick retired from active business.

Hon. John Waynard Harland, the defeated Republican for mayor of Chicago, ought to have known he would get "Dunne" up by running against the Judge.

Shall the government undertake to furnish every citizen with oil? asks the Washington Post, discussing the subject of monopolies. No; some would prefer oil stock.

"Men's hearts are filled with a longing for something better and finer," says Dr. Dwight Hillis. With Easter displays on every hand, we suspect the women's hearts are filled the same way, Doctor.

Vice President H. H. Rogers, of the Standard Oil Co., declares that "Mr. Rockefeller is not dishonest." It is suspected that Mr. Rockefeller would say as much for Mr. Rogers if occasion demanded.

Gov. Hoch says that his suggestion to christen the Battleship Kansas with a bottle of oil, was really a joke. Still Kansans are not in a mood to make "light of oil" if it is the "Standard brand."

The children will be grieved to learn that "the wild man, of Borneo," who has been in the circus business for so many years, is dead. He will be buried in Missouri, near the old farm on which he was born.

Vermont reports that her output of "maple syrup" will be less than half of last year's production. The printing houses however will print more "Pure Vermont Maple Syrup" labels than ever, notwithstanding and nevertheless.

The Washington Post remarks that Kansas is probably sorry that she ever broke herself of the habit of using candles. Not a bit of it. Kansas now has oil and gas to burn, and she is going to burn them, with or without the consent of the Standard Oil Company.

Those union miners who were deported from Colorado, have sued former Gov. Peabody for damages amounting to $300,000. Peabody will doubtless plead that he is not liable, as he was simply an agent, carrying out the instructions of his masters, political and commercial.

Cheated Death.

Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had Kidney Trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble, and keep them constantly on hand, since, as I find they have no equal." All druggists, guarantee them at 50c.

Change of Time.

Before Magoffin County was taken from the 23rd Judicial District the time for holding the spring term of the Wolfe Circuit Court was the fourth Monday in April. Now, however, it is the first Monday in May. Our readers will do well to note this fact so they may not go to court and be disappointed.

TRADE PROTECTOR.

BY SAM WILSON,

There is a painter in this clime,
Whose trade is up in G;
He loves to do the best of work,
As all can plainly see.

Some patrons try to scheme and plan,
And want his labor free;
And others pay a living price,
Which fills his heart with glee.

And when the chink is there for him
His work is hard to beat;
For many have tried him in the art
Of a finish so complete.

A sample of his work so grand,
Will ever, ever shine,
On furniture at Mort Cecil's home—
An oak of the latest design.

Then gaze at the editor's furniture,
'Tis of a snowy white;
Combined with beauty, for 'twas done
With Japalac, so bright.

To those who try a rabbit's foot
And those who scheme and plan,
Must elsewhere look, for all their tricks
Are known to your Uncle Sam.

Killing at Campton.

At Campton Friday afternoon last, Joe Fierstein, a clerk in the store of Feirstein & Euster, the Jew merchants of that place, shot Elis Wright, the ball penetrating his breast and ranging down through the bowels. Saturday afternoon Fierstein was taken from the jail where he was placed just after the shooting, and brought out for trial. He waived examination and was admitted to bail in the sum of $2,000, which he readily gave. He then went to the store and proceeded to change his clothing; 20 minutes after Fierstein was admitted to bail Wright died, and he was re-arrested and placed in jail. It is said that while he was dressing a buggy was standing at the store-door ready to take him away and the presumption is that had he got away before Wright died he would never again have been heard from. Circuit Court convenes the first Monday in May and he will probably have his trial at once.

Later—On Wednesday Judge Conleton admitted Fierstein to bail in the sum of $5,000 and it is generally believed that he will skip and never face a trial.

If a Cow gave Butter

mankind would have to invent milk. Milk is Nature's emulsion—butter put in shape for digestion. Cod liver oil is extremely nourishing, but it has to be emulsified before we can digest it.

Scott's Emulsion

combines the best oil with the valuable hypophosphites so that it is easy to digest and does far more good than the oil alone could. That makes Scott's Emulsion the most strengthening, nourishing food—medicine in the world.

A Man of Misfortune.

Joe Spencer, a brother of Sam Spencer, the well-known oil man, was here this week to see Dr. Nickell, who has been treating him for a pain in the side. He is located at Campton. Tuesday morning he cut his hand and wrapped it up in a piece of cotton which he saturated with turpentine. A little later he lit a match to light a cigar, and in doing so set fire to the turpentine, and burned his hand very severely. Joe thinks ill luck struck him all in a heap.

Quarterly Meeting.

The meeting at the Methodist Church continues with unabated interest. Rev. Mr. Lee, of Campton, assisted Evangelist Johnson and the pastor Mr. Williams, in the meeting since our last issue. The Presiding Elder will be here Saturday night and Sunday night. But he will not preach here Sunday morning. Instead he will preach at Sandfield Sunday morning, where he will dedicate the church.

Geo. Mortimer was a guest at the Day House Tuesday night, en route to Campton from West Liberty. While making some changes in the machinery for drilling, he being a driller employed by Perrine, a drill-bit slipped and catching him on the foot mashed that member badly. Dr. Collier accompanied him to this place but returned to West Liberty Tuesday night.

A game between Lee City and Daysboro on one side, and Hazel Green on the other, played here Saturday afternoon, resulted in favor of the home team, the score being 24 to seven. Hazel Green will play Campton at that place on Saturday afternoon, and Campton will play a return game here the following Saturday.

The Red Men are increasing rapidly at this place. Tuesday night eight petitions for membership were presented. According to their by-laws a member shall have belonged to the order six months before he is entitled to benefits, but after that, if sick he draws $5.00 per week.

Uncle Jack Rittenhouse, who has been up on the Sandy River, for some months past, came home Monday accompanied by Taylor Young, a lawyer of Paintsville, and yesterday they were engaged in taking depositions in the case of Swango vs. Rittenhouse.

The derrick for the Holly Wilson well on Nickell Fork was completed Saturday and the machinery will be on the ground this week it is thought. In case it is, drilling will begin at once, and the people pray the result may be everything hoped for.

Sam Wilson is this week painting the home of Willie Clark, at Public Square. The body is of white, trimmed with a reddish brown, and makes a great improvement in the neighborhood. Sam loves to do good work.

John Tom Gevedon and wife returned Saturday from Breathitt County, where they visited relatives and friends and Mr. Gevedon delivered to Miss Lula South a fine piano she bought from D. H. Baldwin & Co.

Misses Maggie and Lizzie Elkins, who have been teaching in the Woman's Christian Temperance Union Settlement School at Hindman, are expected to arrive here Saturday to spend several days with C. W. Williams and family.

Try for Health

222 South Peoria St.,
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 7, 1902.

Eight months ago I was so ill that I was compelled to lie or sit down nearly all the time. My stomach was so weak and upset that I could keep nothing on it and I vomited frequently. I could not urinate without great pain and I coughed so much that my throat and lungs were raw and sore. The doctors pronounced it Bright's disease and others said it was consumption. It mattered little to me what they called it and I had no desire to live. A sister visited me from St. Louis and asked me if I had ever tried Wine of Cardui. I told her I had not and she bought a bottle. I believe that it saved my life. I believe many women could save much suffering if they but knew of its value.

Surga Dunder

Don't you want freedom from pain? Take Wine of Cardui and make one supreme effort to be well. You do not need to be a weak, helpless sufferer. You can have a woman's health and do a woman's work in life. Why not secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today?
